October 15, 2019

Greetings!

Wow! This year has moved along so quickly that it is time to start planning for our Holly Day Light Parade and we are hoping to once again count on your support.

The Almont DDA is excited to announce that our 22nd Annual Holly Day Light Parade will take place on Saturday, December 7th 2019.

The Parade will once again take place in Downtown Almont. The schedule is as follows:

Schedule of Events:

Visit with Santa 4:00-6:00 pm Sippin in the Mitten/Aurora Realty Group 102 S. Main Street

Children can visit with Santa and receive a small gift. Refreshments will be served. Bring a camera to capture the magic.

Learn/see the History of Almont 1:00pm-8:00pm Almont Historical Museum – 149 S. Main

Stop by and learn about the history of Almont. The Museum is filled with items dating back to the 1800's. Did you know that the Muir Funeral Home was a hospital? Just one of the interesting things you can learn at the Almont Historical Museum.

Arts & Crafts and Santa Letters 4:30-6:30 pm Almont Historical Museum – 149 S. Main

The Almont Historical Society will have their doors open to welcome children of all ages to come make a holiday decoration/ornament and write a letter to Santa. Spend some time learning about the history of Almont and tour the museum. Letters can be placed in Santa's mailbox or taken to Santa when you visit him.

Parade Line-Up Begins	6:00 pm	Centennial Street
Almont H.S. Varsity Singers – Community Sing	6:30 pm	Fountain Park
Parade Begins	7:00 pm	Main Street

Come experience the holiday magic in downtown Almont. Welcome Santa and delight in watching the new community memorial tree be lit for the first time in a re-dedication to the three young men that this tree is meant for. Mingle with family and friends around the warming fire while enjoying a steaming cup of hot cocoa or cider and nibbling on the treats of the season.

The Parade is expected to bring residents, businesses, organizations, schools & the community together to enjoy the start of the holiday season.

The success of the 22nd Annual Holly Day Light Parade is made possible through the generosity of businesses & organizations such as yours. By supporting the Holly Day Light Parade your business will be advertised throughout the parade announcements and will help sponsor the winners of this year's Holly Day Light Parade. Sponsorship deadline is Monday, December 2nd 2019.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact K. Schall, DDA Director at 810-798-8125 or by email at kschall@almontdda.com. Donations can be mailed to: Almont DDA, Attn: K. Schall – 817 N. Main St., Almont, MI 48003

THANK YOU. YOUR SUPPORT AND GENEROSITY IS GREATLY APPRECIATED.
