

Almont Annual SCARECROW Decorating Contest

JOIN in some old-fashioned fall fun and help celebrate Halloween in Almont!

This years theme is:

HOLLYWOOD

Gather your favorite team, club, family and friends and let your creativity soar.

There is NO cost to participate. Information to pick up pre-assembled frames at the Edward Jones office located in the old Saddlery Building (810-673-7883). You can also recycle your old frames or build your own using the specs available on the DDA website, www.almontdda.com. What better way to celebrate Halloween and have the chance to win great prizes! (1st, 2nd and 3rd places)

All scarecrows will remain on display downtown to help build school spirit and community pride!

Sponsored by

- Theme examples would be anything that relates to Almont Raiders and the local community, sports teams, clubs, community landmarks and local businesses... Be creative!
- All scarecrows must be attached to the specified frame. The eye hooks on the back of each frame must be exposed. These hooks will be used to attach the scarecrows to the light posts downtown.
- Any scarecrow exhibiting inappropriate or obscene clothing, logos or gestures will be disqualified. The contest judges will make this determination.
- All scarecrows are to be brought to the Fountain Park on Wednesday October 20th by 6:00 pm for judging.
- Scarecrows are to be displayed downtown through November 3rd. They may be removed and taken home the following week until November 10th. Any scarecrows not picked up will be disposed of.

Reminders:

Scarecrows are exposed to sun, wind and rain. Weather resistant material securely fastened work best
Natural materials such as pumpkins will rot and the scarecrow will fall apart

Do not make the scarecrow legs extend beyond the bottom of the frame
